

DARTMOUTH ROYAL REGATTA SAILING WEEK

Dinghies are sailing now, and looking forward to the Yacht Racing

22nd August 2023

Dear Friends of Dartmouth Royal Regatta Sailing Week,

Last day today for the Rockfish Junior Dinghy Series! The weather has been kind to them apart from a brief downpour on Sunday, and it's been a good steady breeze although a little strong tide. They've had fun and enjoyed some competitive racing. Their prize giving will be this afternoon, about 14:00 at RDYC, come along and show your support.

Meanwhile at Dittisham, there has been another record number of entries for the Pilot Financial Dinghy Series, and both visitors and local club members enjoyed 3 races yesterday and 3 planned for tomorrow ahead of Wednesday's forecast of light winds. Read the highlights on our home page (under Latest News). Prize giving Wednesday about 14:00 at Dittisham SC.

Both RDYC in Kingswear and DYC in Dartmouth are looking forward to welcoming competitors in the Yacht Racing which starts tomorrow with the Savills Passage Race. At RDYC, breakfasts will be available from Thursday, lunches and crew suppers every day from 16:00 (more details here, RDYC Members book supper here, non members book supper here). DYC will be offering light bites from 12:00 – 16:00, and the bar and river terrace will be open until late.

Late entries for the Savills Passage Race or the Yacht and Dayboat Series are open until 17:00 the day before the race - but if intending to enter in the Cruiser or Dayboat classes please ensure you have a 2023 RYA YTC certificate before submitting your entry. Entries are also still open for the White Sail Event and Gaffer Event at the weekend.

For those not racing tomorrow, why not join the Waterbourne Treasure Hunt (09:00 from DYC), or enjoy a walk on the coast path at Berry Head or Froward Point to watch the Savills Passage Race (starts from Brixham at 14:00). For full details of all events around town, see <https://www.dartmouthregatta.co.uk/> and buy a Regatta Souvenir Programme for £7 which supports the varied programme of events which are all organised by volunteers (available from many venues in Dartmouth, and from the village shop in Kingswear by the banjo).

With best wishes,

JRSC (Joint Regatta Sailing Committee)
