Dartmouth Royal Regatta Sailing Week

My DARTMOUTHSAILINGWEEK Account

Dear Friends of Dartmouth Royal Regatta Sailing Week,

After two great days of sailing, the weather was not so kind to the dinghies today. Racing was cancelled for the Rockfish Junior Dinghies due to 30 knot gusts, whilst up river at Dittisham they are yet to decide whether they can get a race in this afternoon in the Moore Kingston Smith Series. Read all about their Day 1 exploits (attached and on the home page under Latest News).

Junior Prizegiving will take place on the terrace at RDYC this afternoon at 1630 – do come along and support these keen young sailors.

The Yacht racing starts on Wednesday with the Savills & SPF Passage Race – Berry Head and Froward Point are good viewing points. If you are looking for crew or for crewing opportunities for the yacht racing, check our Crew Search page, or send your CV/vacancy details to info@dartmouthsailingweek.com to be uploaded. And for details of timings including prizegivings throughout the week, check our Calendar page. Late entries are open until 17:00 the day before the race - but if intending to enter in the YTC class please ensure you have a 2026 RYA YTC certificate before submitting your entry (Classic class cancelled due to lack of entries). Entries are also still open for the White Sail Event and Gaffer Event starting on Saturday.

We are delighted to be welcoming back Ingrid Abery as official photographer. With her many years experience of marine action photography, and many front cover images for the likes of Yachts & Yachting and Classic Boat, combined with our beautiful Devon coastline scenery, we are assured of some stunning images.

Kind regards,

Barbara (and the Sailing Office Team)
